

NEBBIOLO PEDIGREE DIAGRAM

NEBBIOLO is so old (first mentioned in 1266) that its parents are probably extinct, and these eight natural crosses illustrate its significant impact on the grape germplasm of its traditional growing regions in Italy, Piemonte and Valtellina. However, when unknown (and probably extinct) varieties (?) are involved, the inverse relationships are also theoretically possible (see p X).

